Animator - Game Developer

brandon.driesse@gmail.com

Profile

Lover of cartoons and vocal supporter of independent animation and games on the internet through sites like Newgrounds.com. Five years making video games, three years of freelance animating, and twenty or so years of starved passion to create. Hobbies range from tennis to building computers to stop-motion films to photogrammetry to running audio capture on commercial film shoots.

I make stuff; sometimes for money, but always for fun.
